

Campaign Assessment: Are You Ready for a Campaign?

To successfully conduct a multi-million campaign, internal readiness must be assessed. Through this assessment tool we will determine the strengths and challenges of your nonprofit to ensure the organization is adequately prepared to undertake this exciting endeavor.

Rate the organization on a scale of 1 to 5 with 5 denoting that the agency is "Fully Confident and Prepared" and 1 denoting that the agency is "Unprepared at This Time." Categories with a score of "3 or below" are areas that should be addressed before embarking on a capital or comprehensive campaign. It is not important that everything be rated "4 or 5", however it is important that you rate your organization objectively, so you can focus your efforts on areas for improvement.

| ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE                                                                                     | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |

|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|
| Our Board is educated about the campaign and prepared to lead both through giving and solicitation.                       |   |   |   |   |   |
| Both staff and board members have a high degree of commitment to the success of this campaign effort.                     |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have a clear understanding of our capital needs and the associated costs for this effort, including fundraising costs. |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have shared our campaign concepts with key stakeholders to gauge their interest.                                       |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have competent, qualified development staff prepared to direct the campaign and to support volunteer leadership.       |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have qualified donors and/or prospects that can give leadership gifts for this effort.                                 |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have board members who have been volunteers in a campaign previously.                                                  |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have board members who have access to potential campaign donors.                                                       |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have board members who can serve on the campaign cabinet.                                                              |   |   |   |   |   |
| Our board members will fund 15% to 30% of the campaign goal.                                                              |   |   |   |   |   |
| We can enlist top community leaders to help lead this campaign.                                                           |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have influential people currently involved in our cause.                                                               |   |   |   |   |   |
| We can identify potential volunteer leaders and create a plan to enlist them.                                             |   |   |   |   |   |
| We can identify a lead gift at approximately 20 to 25% of the goal.                                                       |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have allocated funds to "staff up" for the campaign.                                                                   |   |   |   |   |   |
| DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM                                                                                                       | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
| We have board members who are active in fundraising now.                                                                  |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have major donors who are well cultivated and prepared to give gifts large enough to succeed.                          |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have staff infrastructure in place for optimal support, both from the development and program perspectives.            |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have an experienced, capable staff.                                                                                    |   |   |   |   |   |
| We have a development database which we are confident can manage donor and gift/pledge information.                       |   |   |   |   |   |
